

LITURGICAL READER TRAINING

I The History of the Task

- A) The Order of Readers
- B) The Council of Trent
- C) The Second Vatican Council

II The Fundamentals of the task:

- A) The Book
- B) The physics of space
- C) The physiology of the listener
 - a) speed of hearing
 - b) capacity for distraction

III The Reader:

- a) Physiology of the action of Reading aloud
- b) The nature of the English language
 - 1) a tongued language
 - 2) a consonantal language
- c) The psychology of the reader

IV A few words about Paul

IV The Details

a) Structure of the Reading

1) form and parts

b) Reading the Text

1) The nature of proclamation in contradistinction to interpretation or dramatization

2) The guides: diagrammatical markings

3) Lectionary support: sense lines

4) Preparation